

Partnerships in Pediatrics

Sharing Information | Serving our Children

Partnerships in Pediatrics Conference

Tuesday, April 15, 2025 / 12-5p

Conference Rooms 2 & 3, MaineGeneral Medical Center - Augusta

Use the QR code or link to register.

<https://forms.office.com/r/gaTkfcpKsP>

12-12:50p Lunch, registration, packet pick-up

12:50-1p Welcome and Introductions - Lorraine McElwain, MD

1-1:30p Headache/Migraine– Tom Reynolds, DO, Pediatric Neurology

1. Understand differentiation between primary and secondary headaches in childhood
2. Understand rational use of neuroimaging in childhood and avoidance of over-scanning
3. Understand approach to abortive and prophylactic therapies for migraine

1:30-2:00p Milk Protein Allergy & FPIES – Noah Hoffman, MD, Pediatric Specialty Care

1. Discuss differences between food protein induced enterocolitis of infancy and FPIES
2. Review diagnosis and management of food protein induced enterocolitis of infancy
3. Review diagnosis and management of FPIES, and the role of the gastroenterologist in FPIES

2:00-2:30p Eating Disorders - Diagnosis – Cynthia Robbins, MD, Adolescent Medicine

1. Identify common signs of eating disorders
2. Be familiar with how to screen for disordered eating during preventative health exams
3. Recognize key differences amongst eating disorders to make accurate diagnoses

2:30-3:00p Snack/Beverage Break

3:00-3:30p Auto-immune/ADEM Illnesses – Tom Reynolds, DO, Pediatric Neurology

1. Recognize the basic auto-immune mediated acute demyelinating syndromes in children
2. Be able to associate some of the clinical features of these diseases with their neuroanatomical locations
3. Know the basics of acute therapy and discussion of prognosis based upon work-up and clinical course

3:30-4:00p NBN/Infant Expected Growth & When to Worry – Noah Hoffman, MD, Pediatric Specialty Care

1. Review the caloric needs of infants
2. Understand the importance of caloric intake in assessment and management of growth concerns
3. Review concerning growth patterns and the differential diagnosis of growth concerns in infants

4:00-4:30p Eating Disorders - Treatment/Local Resources – Cynthia Robbins, MD, Adolescent Medicine

1. Perform initial management upon diagnosis including counselling parents on interventions at home
2. Realize clinical signs that indicate the need for hospitalization or a higher level of care
3. Connect patients with multidisciplinary care in your community

4:30-5:00p Conference ends with questions, comments, and feedback/evaluations, and networking